INTRODUCTORY NOTE.

This Volume of Abstracts of the Returns which have been collected under the authority of the Census Act for England and Wales, comprises Tables of the Ages of the People, of their Condition as regards Marriage, of their Occupations, and of their Birth-places. Special Tables are appropriated to the Blind, the Deaf-and-Dumb, and the Inmates of certain Public Institutions.

To facilitate comparison, the form and arrangement of the Tables are substantially the same as in the Abstracts of the Census Returns of 1851. In some particulars, however, the information now given is more minute; for example, new columns show the number of children returned at each year of age under 5; the ages of married, unmarried, and widowed persons in each District; the distinction of sex throughout the Birth-place Tables; the countries of birth and the occupations of Foreigners, &c.

The nomenclature of many occupations is in an unsettled state. But in 1851 an attempt was made to frame a classification under which all the varieties of occupation could be placed; and that classification was to a certain extent successful. After further experience, its groups have been simplified and its ramifications extended, so as to exhibit in one view the whole population of England and Wales marshalled in six groups, according to their various occupations. The few changes give greater prominence to some branches of industry; and while in all essential respects the present Tables correspond with those of the previous Census, several additional items have been distinguished. A more particular notice of the alterations which have been made will be found in the Report on the Census to be presented to Parliament.

The arrangement of the details under the Eleven Statistical Divisions of England has been adopted to facilitate the sale of the Tables in separate Parts.

Census Office, London,
1 July 1863.

Note.—In consulting this Alphabetical List of Occupations, reference should also be made to the Classified Arrangement shown in Tables XVIII. to XX., in which kindred employments are brought together under the Orders and Sub-orders here indicated by numbers in the columns headed "Reference to Classified Arrangement." Occupations closely connected with each other are necessarily separated in an alphabetical arrangement, which should be used with caution by those who wish to arrive at general results.

Persons engaged in more than one occupation have been referred to that which appeared to be their chief or leading pursuit; hence it frequently happens that an understatement is made of the numbers following particular employments. In some cases, where small numbers are returned as engaged in making or selling articles of general consumption, the accuracy of the returns will, perhaps, be questioned; but it should be remembered that a great subdivision of trades is required and supported only in the principal towns, and that the apparent deficiencies in all probability arise from many persons employed in connexion with such articles being merged in other returns.

The numbers returned under trades and manufactures comprise generally all persons employed in them—labourers, apprentices, as well as assistants—thus furnishing a more correct test than any other of the relative importance of each trade. Many young persons are thus referred to occupations usually followed by adults. Women also, chiefly widows who carry on the trades of their deceased husbands, are sometimes returned under employments commonly followed by men. The wives of Innkeepers, Beershopkeepers, Lodging-house Keepers, Shoemakers, Butchers, Farmers, and Shopkeepers are returned apart from the wives generally, as they are usually engaged in assisting in their husbands' business. Superannuated persons and others described as retired, as well as the inmates of public institutions, are classed under their former occupations, when these are stated.

Upon a final revision of the Classified Arrangement of Occupations, as contained in an extensive and elaborate series of detailed Tables, certain alterations have been made, owing to which the numbers in this Table will not in all cases represent the sum of the details given in the Divisional Tables.

The items printed in CAPITALS are those distinguished in the Tables of Occupations in Counties, Towns, and Districts throughout; the items printed in the ordinary character are those included in such Tables under the head of "Others," in the respective Sub-orders; while those printed in italics are the more important occupations comprised under the head "Others" in the respective Sub-orders in Tables XIX. and XX.

* The numbers of officers of the Army and Navy on Half-pay are understated, many of them who omitted to insert "Half-pay" after stating their rank having been classed with Effectives. The items "Officer" and "Half-pay Officer" should be taken collectively, both in the case of the Army and Navy. For returns of the entire Army and Navy, distinguishing officers and men, abroad and at home, see Appendix to Report in Vol. III.

Note.—In this and the following Table the Occupations are arranged according to the principle of classification adopted in the preceding Summary, Table XVIII. When an Order or Sub-order consists of Occupations inapplicable to both sexes, it occurs only in the Table for the sex to which it is appropriate.

Persons engaged in more than one branch of trade are referred to that which appeared to be their chief pursuit. Where inadequate numbers are returned under particular employments, the apparent deficiencies in all probability arise from persons partly engaged in them being returned in other capacities.

The numbers returned under trades and manufactures comprise all persons employed in them, including labourers, apprentices, and assistants, as well as masters. Many young persons are thus referred to occupations usually followed by adults. Women also, chiefly widows who carry on the trades of their deceased husbands, are sometimes returned under employments commonly followed by men. Superannuated persons, and others described as retired, as well as the inmates of public institutions, are classed under their former occupations, when stated.

Upon a final revision of the Classified Arrangement of Occupations, the numbers in this and the preceding Table have been subjected to some alteration, owing to which they will not strictly represent the sum of the details given in the divisional Tables.

The items printed in CAPITALS are those distinguished in the Tables of Occupations in Counties, Towns, and Districts throughout; the other items are included in the returns for "Others" under the respective Sub-orders in those Tables.

* Such of the Peers and Members of the House of Commons as are not here returned are either entered in other capacities, or omitted on account of absence from England on the day of the Census.

† The numbers of Officers of the Army and Navy on Half-pay are understated, many of them who omitted to insert "Half-pay" after stating their rank having been classed with Effectives. The items "Officer" and "Half-pay Officer" should be taken collectively, both in the case of the Army and Navy. For returns of the entire Army and Navy, distinguishing officers and men, abroad and at home, see Appendix to Report in Vol. III.

(a) Including 10 High Sheriffs, 7 Lord Lieutenants, 36 Deputy Lieutenants, 36 Coroners and Coroners' Officers, 13 High Constables, 22 Magistrates' Clerks, 7 Clerks of the Peace, 45 Sanitary Officers, 6 Pinders, 1 Executioner.

(b) Including 322 Volunteers not otherwise described.

Note.—In consulting this Alphabetical List of Occupations, reference should also be made to the Classified Arrangement shown in Tables No. XXII. and XXIII., pages lxx., lxxi., lxxii., in which kindred employments are brought together under the Classes and Sub-classes here indicated by numbers in the columns headed "Reference to Classified Arrangement." Occupations closely connected with each other are necessarily separated in an alphabetical arrangement, which should be used with caution by those who wish to arrive at general results.

Persons engaged in more than one occupation have been referred to that which appeared to be their chief or leading pursuit; hence it frequently happens that an understatement is made of the numbers following particular employments. In some cases, where small numbers are returned as engaged in making or selling articles of general consumption, the accuracy of the returns will, perhaps, be questioned; but it should be remembered that a great subdivision of trades is required and supported only in the principal towns, and that the apparent deficiencies in all probability arise from many persons employed in connexion with such articles being entered under other denominations.

The numbers returned under trades and manufactures comprise generally all persons employed in them—labourers, apprentices, as well as assistants—thus furnishing a more correct test than any other of the relative importance of each trade. Many young persons are thus referred to occupations usually followed by adults. Women also, chiefly widows who carry on the trades of their deceased husbands, are sometimes returned under employments commonly followed by men. The wives of Innkeepers, Beersellers, Lodging-house Keepers, Shoemakers, Butchers, Farmers, and Shopkeepers are returned apart from the wives generally, as they are usually engaged in the same businesses as their husbands. Superannuated persons, and others described as retired, as well as the inmates of public institutions, are classed under their former occupations, when they are stated.

The occupations printed in italics are included in their respective Sub-orders under the term "Others" in the Classified Tables above mentioned. All the remaining occupations are distinguished in those Tables.

Note.—In this and following Table the Occupations are arranged according to the principle of classification adopted in Table 6 of Islands in the British Seas, pp. 909, 910. The Roman Numerals and the other figures in the first column indicate the numbers of the several Orders and Sub-orders to which the various Occupations have been referred; but where a particular Occupation is inapplicable to the sex, or where no persons are classified as following it, the item is omitted in order to save space.

Persons engaged in more than one branch of trade are referred to that which appeared to be their chief pursuit.

The numbers returned under trades and manufactures comprise all persons employed in them, including labourers, apprentices, and assistants, as well as employers. Very young persons are thus sometimes classed under Occupations usually followed by adults.

The Table is read thus:—In the Islands in the British Seas there were 141 Clergymen of all ages, of whom 61 were aged 20 years and upwards, in the Isle of Man,—45 aged 20 years and upwards, in Jersey,—and 35 aged 20 years and upwards, in Guernsey and adjacent Islands. See Order III., Sub-order 1 (a).

* These consist of the Islands of Alderney, Herm, Jethou, and Le Marchant, and the Isles of Great and Little Sark.

† It is probable that a considerable number of the children here returned were under tuition, although not described as "Scholars" in the Householders' Schedule.

‡ The Sons, Grandsons, Brothers, and Nephews (not otherwise described) of Farmers, when 15 years of age and upwards and resident on the farm or holding, are here separately returned as they are usually engaged on the business of the farm, &c.

§ All labourers in agriculture (except Shepherds out-door) not living in the farmhouses are returned under the head "Agricultural Labourer;" those living in the house of the farmer are classed under "Farm Servant (in-door);" including, among others, Wagoner, Carter, Farmer's Groom, and General Servant.

Note.—The "Country of Birth" of Persons born in Foreign Parts was required to be specifically stated in the Householders' Schedule, but owing to a want of precision in the mode of giving that information it is probable that the natives of Prussia, Austria, and Hungary are understated, and that the numbers referred to "Germany" include some persons born in those countries.
The Children born in the United Kingdom of Foreign Parents are not included in the above numbers.

Note.—In these Tables the Occupations are arranged according to the principle of classification adopted in the preceding Summary, Table XXIX. The Roman Numerals a the other figures in the first column indicate the numbers of the several Orders and Sub-orders to which the various Occupations have been referred. The term "Others" co prises the Occupations of minor importance in the several Sub-orders, and is used to save space.

Persons engaged in more than one branch of trade are referred to that which appeared to be their chief pursuit.

The numbers returned under trades and manufactures comprise all persons employed in them, including labourers, apprentices, and assistants, as well as employers. Ve young persons are thus sometimes classed under Occupations usually followed by adults.

* The Occupations here returned of the Inmates of Workhouses, Prisons, and Lunatic Asylums are those followed by persons previous to their becoming inmates of those Institutions, as stated by the masters, keepers, governors, or proprietors. The Occupations of the Blind (as principals or assistants) are in some instances those actually followed by them at the period of the Census, but in the majority of cases their former pursuits were stated; the returns do not, however, admit of the employments in which they were engaged before loss of sight being distinguished from those carried on in a state of blindness.

* Although in some instances the Occupations of the Blind (as principals or assistants) are those actually followed by the Blind at the period of the Census, their former pursuits are, in the majority of cases, referred to. The returns do not admit of the employments in which persons were engaged before loss of sight being distinguished from those carried on in a state of blindness. In this and subsequent Tables of the Blind, the Occupations are arranged according to the principle of classification adopted in the General Tables of the Occupations of the People, and shown in the preceding Table. The Roman Numerals and the other figures in the column headed "Occupations" indicate the numbers of the several Orders and Sub-orders to which the various employments have been referred.

* For the Extra-metropolitan Districts of Surrey and Kent, see Division II.—South-eastern Counties.

† The Sub-districts are subdivisions of the Districts, and consist either of parts of large Parishes or aggregates of small Parishes in which the Births and Deaths are recorded by Registrars severally appointed for that purpose. For the Parishes and Places comprised in each Sub-district, see "Population Tables, Vol. I.—Numbers and Distribution of the People."

Note.—The letter (W.) denotes that a Workhouse is situate within the limits of the Sub-district, and included in the return; (w.) indicates that a Workhouse not belonging to the District or Union is included in the return. The establishments for pauper children known as Industrial Schools are not here noticed as Workhouses.

* For Ages of Husbands and their Wives in combination, see Table 6.
† In the few instances in which persons described as married have been returned at any age under 15, they have been classified with the persons aged 15 and under 20.

Note.—The Table is read thus:—In Division I.—London, there were unmarried 785,716 males, of whom 461,027 were under 15 years of age,—119,218 aged 15 and under 20 years,—94,842 aged 20 and under 25 years,—and so on; and 870,650 females, of whom 465,877 were under 15 years of age,—134,405 aged 15 and under 20 years,—and so on. There were of married persons, 481,386 Husbands,—719 under 20 years of age,—27,425 aged 20 and under 25 years,—and so on; and 495,024 Wives,—4,740 under 20 years of age, 48,518 aged 20 and under 25 years,—and so on. And there were of widowed persons, 40,679 Widowers,—12 under 20 years of age,—281 aged 20 and under 25 years,—and so on; and 130,534 Widows,—61 under 20 years,—888 aged 20 and under 25 years,—and so on. The difference between the number of Husbands and Wives arises from married couples having been apart, and either the Husband or Wife having been absent from the Division on the night of the Census.

Note.—In the present and subsequent Tables the Occupations are arranged according to the principle of classification adopted in the preceding Summary. The Roman Numerals and the other figures in the first column indicate the numbers of the several Orders and Sub-orders to which the various Occupations have been referred; but where a particular Occupation is inapplicable to the sex, or where no persons are classified as following it, the item is omitted in order to save space. The Occupations referred to "Others" in the several Sub-orders appear in detail in the Summary Table for England and Wales.

Persons engaged in more than one branch of trade are referred to that which appeared to be their chief pursuit.

The numbers returned under trades and manufactures comprise all persons employed in them, including labourers, apprentices, and assistants, as well as employers. Very young persons are thus sometimes classed under Occupations usually followed by adults.

The Table is read thus:—In London there were 1,533 Clergymen of all ages, of whom 29 were aged 20 and under 25 years, 386 aged 25 and under 35 years, 425 aged 35 and under 45 years, and so on for each respective column of age. See Order III., Sub-order 1 (a).

Note.—The Country of Birth of Persons born in Foreign Parts was required to be stated in the Householders' Schedule, but owing to a want of precision in the mode of giving that information it is probable that the Natives of Prussia, Austria, and Hungary are understated in these Tables, and that the numbers referred to Germany include some persons born in the above Countries.

The Children born in the United Kingdom of Foreign Parents are not included in the above numbers.

* The Registration or Union Counties consist of groups of entire Registration Districts; which Districts are, in general, identical with the Poor Law Unions. As the principle has been adopted of placing a District which extends into more than one County with the County in which either the principal town or the greater part of the population is located, the limits of the Registration Counties differ more or less from the boundaries of the Counties proper, as shown in "Population Tables, Vol. I.—Numbers and Distribution of the People."

† For the number of Children at each year of age under 5, see Tables 4 and 5.

‡ For the Parishes and Places comprised in each Superintendent Registrar's District, see "Population Tables, Vol. I." The Districts are arranged topographically under the Registration Counties, and are numbered consecutively, commencing with the Metropolitan Districts, Division I.

§ For the Metropolitan Districts of Surrey and Kent, see London, Division I.

* For ages of Husbands and their Wives in combination, see Table 8.
† In the few instances in which persons described as married have been returned at any age under 15, they have been classified with the persons aged 15 and under 20.

Note.—The Table is read thus:—In Division II.—South-eastern Counties, there were unmarried 578,966 males, of whom 327,416 were under 15 years of age,—90,660 aged and under 20 years,—72,953 aged 20 and under 25 years,—and so on; and 553,039 females, of whom 323,642 were under 15 years of age,—82,188 aged 15 and under 20 years and so on. There were of married persons, 304,525 Husbands, 255 under 20 years of age,—13,147 aged 20 and under 25 years,—and so on; and 309,979 Wives, 2,248 under years of age,—25,943 aged 20 and under 25 years,—and so on. And there were of widowed persons, 35,690 Widowers, 3 under 20 years of age,—131 aged 20 and under 25 years and so on; and 65,462 Widows, 20 under 20 years—346 aged 20 and under 25 years,—and so on. The difference between the number of Husbands and Wives arises from marr couples having been apart, and either the Husband or Wife having been absent from the Division on the night of the Census.

Note.—In the present and subsequent Tables the Occupations are arranged according to the principle of classification adopted in the preceding summary. The Roma Numerals and the other figures in the first Column indicate the numbers of the several Orders and Sub-orders to which the various Occupations have been referred; but wher a particular Occupation is inapplicable to the sex, or where no persons are classified as following it, the item is omitted in order to save space. The Occupations referred t "Others" in the several Sub-orders appear in detail in the Summary Table for England and Wales.

Persons engaged in more than one branch of trade are referred to that which appeared to be their chief pursuit.

The numbers returned under trades and manufactures comprise all persons employed in them, including labourers, apprentices, and assistants, as well as employers. Ver young persons are thus sometimes classed under Occupations usually followed by adults.

The Table is read thus:—In the Extra-metropolitan part of Surrey there were 353 Clergymen of all ages, of whom 8 were aged 20 and under 25 years, 87 aged 25 and under 3 years, 98 aged 35 and under 45 years, and so on for each respective column of age. See Order III., Sub-order 1 (a).

* The "Wives," "Daughters," "Grand-daughters," "Sisters," and "Nieces" (not otherwise described) of Farmers and of Graziers are, if aged 15 years and resident on the farm, &c., presumed to be more or less engaged in farming pursuits, and are therefore referred to Order VIII.; those under 15 years of age are returned as "Children and Relatives," or as "Scholars," Order IV., Sub-orders 3, 4, respectively. The return for "Farm Servant (in-door)" includes Dairy-women and all Female Servants living in Farm-houses, except those employed in domestic duties, as Cooks, Housemaids, Nurses, &c.

Note.—The Wives of Innkeepers, Publicans, Lodging-house Keepers, Shoemakers, Shopkeepers, Butchers, and Farmers are specifically returned in the Table, as they are generally engaged in the same business as their husbands. (See also Notes under Tables 10 and 11.)

Note.—The Country of Birth of Persons born in Foreign Parts was required to be stated in the Householders' Schedule, but owing to a want of precision in the mode of giving that information it is probable that the natives of Prussia, Austria, and Hungary are understated in these Tables, and that the numbers referred to Germany include some persons born in the above Countries.

The Children born in the United Kingdom of Foreign Parents are not included in the above numbers.

* The Registration or Union Counties consist of groups of entire Registration Districts; which Districts are, in general, identical with the Poor Law Unions. As the principle has been adopted of placing a District which extends into more than one County with the County in which either the principal town or the greater part of the population is located, the limits of the Registration Counties differ more or less from the boundaries of the Counties proper, as shown in "Population Tables, Vol. I., Numbers and Distribution of the People."

† For the number of Children at each year of age under 5, see Tables 4 and 5.

‡ For the Parishes and Places comprised in each Superintendent Registrar's District, see "Population Tables, Vol. I." The Districts are arranged topographically under the Registration Counties, and are numbered consecutively, commencing with the Metropolitan Districts, Division I.

§ For the Metropolitan Districts of Middlesex, see London, Division I.

* The Sub-districts are sub-divisions of the Districts, and severally comprise the Parishes or Places in which the Births and Deaths are recorded by a Registrar appointed for that purpose. For the Parishes and Places comprised in each Sub-district, see "Population Tables, Vol. I., Numbers and Distribution of the People."

Note.—The letter (W.) denotes that a Workhouse is situate within the limits of the Sub-district, and included in the return; (w) indicates that a Workhouse not belonging to the District or Union is included in the eturn. The establishments for pauper children known as Industrial Schools are not here noticed as Workhouses.

* For Ages of Husbands and their Wives in combination, see Table 8.

† In the few instances in which persons described as married have been returned at any age under 15, they have been classified with the persons aged 15 and under 20 years.

Note.—The Table is read thus:—In Division III.—South-midland Counties, there were unmarried 383,829 males, of whom 239.616 were under 15 years of age,—62,001 aged 15 and under 20 years,—37,768 aged 20 and under 25 years,—and so on; and 389,882 females, of whom 235,988 were under 15 years of age,—60,558 aged 15 and under 20 years,—and so on. There were of married persons, 223,421 Husbands, 357 under 20 years of age,—12,022 aged 20 and under 25 years,—and so on; and 225,443 Wives, 1,599 under 20 years of age,—19,019 aged 20 and under 25 years,—and so on. And there were of widowed persons, 26,487 Widowers, 4 under 20 years of age,—102 aged 20 and under 25 years,—and so on; and 46,435 Widows, 10 under 20 years,—225 aged 20 and under 25 years,—and so on. The difference between the number of Husbands and Wives arises from married couples having been apart, and either the Husband or Wife having been absent from the Division on the night of the Census.

Note.—In the present and subsequent Tables the Occupations are arranged according to the principle of classification adopted in the preceding Summary. The Roman Numerals and the other figures in the first column indicate the numbers of the several Orders and Sub-orders to which the various Occupations have been referred; but where a particular Occupation is inapplicable to the sex, or where no persons are classified as following it, the item is omitted in order to save space. The Occupations referred to "Others" in the several Sub-orders appear in detail in the Summary Table for England and Wales.

Persons engaged in more than one branch of trade are referred to that which appeared to be their chief pursuit.

The numbers returned under trades and manufactures comprise all persons employed in them, including labourers, apprentices, and assistants, as well as employers. Very young persons are thus sometimes classed under Occupations usually followed by adults.

The Table is read thus:—In the Extra-metropolitan part of Middlesex there were 208 Clergymen of all ages, of whom 4 were aged 20 and under 25 years, 54 aged 25 and under 35 years, 55 aged 35 and under 45 years, and so on for each respective column of age. See Order III., Sub-order 1 (a).
